

Charles Graham

October 18, 2019

On Friday, October 18, 2019, Charles Graham, loving husband and father of three children, passed away at the age of 83. Born in Houston, TX to Prentice and Virginia Lovorn, he went on to play football for the University of Texas at Austin where he received a Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry in 1958. He began his medical career in research alongside renowned cardiac and vascular surgeon Dr. Michael DeBakey before transitioning into pharmaceutical sales. An entrepreneur at heart, this eventually led to the opening of his own medical supply company which serviced hospitals in Mexico City. In the mid-1980's, he returned to McAllen and began his career in manufacturing and sales of medical products for nursing homes and hospitals in both the United States and Middle East.

Charlie was a kind, supportive, and honest man. You rarely saw him without his cowboy hat on dressed in a guayabera, and he had a genuine interest in those around him. He never missed a Cowboys or Spurs game, and he loved to travel, read, and go hunting in his spare time. He had a passion for business and medicine, and he took pride in his company and the life he built from the ground up. He was a great man and father, and he will be missed by so many.

Charles is survived by his loving wife Linda Graham along with their daughter Lindsay (Kae) Ahanonu, his sons Garry (Chris) Graham and Robert (Laurie) Graham; grandchildren Vida Ahanonu, Lauren (Cody) Harlow, Eric (Meesha) Graham, Katelynn Graham and Jenna Graham; and great-grandchild Luke Graham. Services will be held on Monday, October 21, 2019 at 2pm at Our Lady Of Sorrows chapel.

Comments

“ Dear Linda and Lindsay, we were so sad to hear about Charles. Please accept our deepest condolences. We are in our Columbus home at the present time. Blessings to you and your beloved ones. Charles and Maggie LaGrange

Maggie LaGrange - October 21, 2019 at 05:52 PM