

Henry Lee Polinard

August 10, 2020

Henry Lee Polinard (Mrs. G. L. Polinard) passed away August 10 at Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Pharr, Texas. She was 102 years old.

She was predeceased by her husband, Grover L. Polinard, in 1968. She is survived by her sons, Jerry Polinard (Cindy) and Michael Polinard; three grandchildren, Elizabeth Polinard, Tracie Polinard, and Joshua Polinard (Joy); and three great-grandchildren, Michael Polinard-Krause, Jeremy Polinard-Krause, and Gabriel Polinard-Krause.

The family also acknowledges the generous support her Corpus Christi neighbors, the Torres and Trujillo families, provided. They made significant contributions to the quality of her life in Corpus. And, the family recognizes the incredible comfort provided by Michelle Babcock, her wonderful caregiver after she moved to McAllen, and, subsequently, to the nursing home. Michelle became part of our family.

The family also is grateful for the dedication of the nurses and staff at Colonial Manor Nursing Home.

She will be buried at Seaside Memorial Cemetery in Corpus Christi. No public service is scheduled. In lieu of flowers, please contribute to a charity of choice.

Comments

“ Jerry and family. So sorry to hear of your mom passing but I hope she had a wonderful life with lots of memories to share with all of you. You probably do not remember me, but while at Del Mar, you and Johnny Holland made Carolyn Lange, Louise Robinson and I have a wonderful memory when we all went to the Junior Rose Bowl in California to see Del Mar play Bakersfield. So thank you and may God bless all of you.

Joyce Harrell Watson - August 15, 2020 at 03:02 PM