Roy was born in a taxi cab in the Bronx, New York and grew up in New York City. Roy moved to the Rio Grande Valley in 1978. He practiced law in Brownsville, Texas before relocating to McAllen, Texas and practicing with Dale & Klein, L.L.P. and marrying his partner in work and in life. He was proud of being an AV rated 58-year lawyer who attended City College of New York and Indiana University Law School. Roy made a career of fighting for underdogs, the downtrodden and the helpless, and always looked for a way to solve the problem that was impossible for everyone else to solve. He succeeded in changing the law in Indiana for a widow who was being denied widow's benefits under a life insurance policy. Roy considered it to have been an honor to have been appointed as a member of the School Board of South Texas I.S.D. Roy was former member of the military and was a German language interpreter for the US Army during the Korean Conflict. He worked many jobs before completing his education. He had relished farming, reading, investing in stocks, and mentoring many attorneys. Roy had a passion for history that was unparalleled and was an encyclopedia of facts. Roy adored his family and was a member of the Temple Emanuel Congregation. He was charitable, quick-witted, brilliant and scholarly. He was forthright in his opinions and impeccably honest. Roy was the man who took money into the bank when the ATM inadvertently gave him too much money. Roy fought lymphoma and its consequences for 14 years, never choosing to give up and planning his next five years to the end. His brilliant mind never wavered nor diminished as he fought multiple health problems. He was adored by his friends. Roy fulfilled a lifelong dream in November, 2019 by traveling to Israel and experiencing its beauty and rich history. Roy sacrificed everything for his family and felt his family was his most important legacy and his greatest source of strength to the end, never wanting to give in to the illness and to remain here for his family.

“ Roy was a great man, and he loved his family dearly. Katie and their children were blessed to have him, but Roy would have told you that he was the one who was blessed. Roy was an amazing attorney who used his talents to help the less fortunate, and he was fierce in his work to help those who needed protection the most. Roy helped many people in many ways. He will be greatly missed.

“ Roy was a great husband and great father, his wife Katie, always talked about how much fun they had together, how much they enjoyed the company with each other, I had the opportunity to see that and to laugh with them.
Roy was a true warrior, she didn't want to let him go and he with Katie's support didn't want to leave without a fight, o yes he did fight like a good lawyer he was. Family and friends will miss this great man. RIP Roy S. Dale
