

Adaline Martha (Holm) Galles

January 10, 2025

Adaline Martha (Holm) Galles Addie Galles, 89, was called to heaven on Friday, January 10, 2025, preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Gerald Galles. She was born in Rice Lake, Wisconsin and went to high school in Iron River, Michigan. She moved to Milwaukee where she began her secretarial career and met the love of her life, Jerry Galles. They married in October, 1956 and settled in Milwaukee.

Addie loved to craft and especially crocheting. She made quilts, lap robes, hats, blankets and dolls - all for donations to benefit the communities that were important to her. Her spirit will live on through the many people she touched including her family and four children: Gary (Beverly) of VA, Doug (Lori) of WI, Judith (Dean) Kroll of NC and Scott (Mayumi) of CA and eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren and many friends.

Memorial and funeral services will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, memorials can be sent to Lambs Loom of McAllen, TX.

“ I met Gerry and Addie 18 years ago when we moved into Alamo Country Club. Addie befriended me and we shared a friendship. What a wonderful women who cared about others. We played Maj Jonng most Wednesday afternoons.
God bless her family and RIP Addie. 🙏

“ Addie was a dear friend, and a fierce Mah Jongg player. We took lessons together, and began playing in 2000. Twenty-five years later, there is a hole that can never be filled.
Rest in Peace, my Friend. Dale Shafer

“ Addie and Jerry were both friends of mine, I miss them. Addie and I worked together as secretary and treasurer of the computer club at Alamo Country Club. We had great fun playing Mah Jongg on Wednesdays and enjoyed going out to lunch occasionally. She was a great friend to visit and share with. Rest in peace Addie.
