

Alla Mae Westbrook

July 8, 2020

Alla Mae (Quinn) Westbrook, born on February 4, 1933 in Greenville, MS went peacefully to the Lord on July 8, 2020. The family lived on a large Plantation and her Dad provided her with a pony to ride the countryside which she enjoyed thoroughly. She is preceded in death by her loving parents, Buford and Myrtle Quinn and her 5 siblings, 4 sisters and a brother. She married her loving husband, Herman Westbrook, San Angelo, TX at age 19 on April 5, 1952 lasting 67 years. She met her husband who was attending flight school at Greenville, MS and eventually became a fighter pilot. They had 3 children, 2 boys and a girl. Her daughter, Dabney lives in Pharr, TX and Glenn, and Wesley were lost in 2017. She was able to enjoy Okinawa for 4 years and London 3. She and her husband enjoyed travel to Europe circa 9 times. She preferred planning each tour without using a tour guide which required a car rental. Her favorite spots were Italy (Rome), Austria and the October fest in Germany. She was a gourmet cook and served food from around the world.

“ Herman and Dabney, all of us (Edlund clan) will miss Alla Mae. I know how much she loved bridge from all Mom's stories and how good they were at it, definitely fighter pilot wives. I will especially miss that southern charm and her big contagious smile she always had, even during the hard times. Being married for 67 years is a milestone, you two truly took care of each other. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and Dabney. Love PeeWee and Patty

Although I have known Herman and Alla Mae only 5 or 6 years, they both have made a big impact on my life. Alla Mae was a unique woman, and I will sorely miss her company and enjoying a glass of wine with her as well as being her sometimes bridge partner. She had that "southern charm", but didn't suffer fools. No one will forget Alla Mae.

“ Condolences to to you Herman and your daughter. Alla Mae was always a pleasure at the bridge Table. Her dry wit was always enjoyable and she will be missed at the Bridge Club.

“ A wonderful classy lady..Fiesty, but with a grin. She asked me to be her bridge partner; I was honored because she was one of the best. Alla Mae enjoyed life. My sympathies to Herman.

“ As a mediocre bridge player when first meeting Alla Mae as a bridge opponent, I found myself highly intimidated by her. The woman knew and loved playing bridge. Over the last couple of years, I found her feisty banter to be refreshing. She made me smile. And when she complimented any little part of my card playing, I was truly honored. I will miss Alla Mae at card club. Herman, may you and your daughter be granted peace in this time of huge loss. Bonnie Larson

“ I first noticed that Alla Mae dressed in a stylish manner and that she loved her bridge. She was very sharp to the end. I loved to see how Herman treated her with love. May our Lord gather her in His arms and give her rest
