

Alvin E. Potter

October 8, 2022

McAllen--Alvin E. Potter, 82, was called home to our Lord on October 8th, 2022, after a brief two-day stay at Amara Hospice, surrounded by loved ones.

Alvin was a remarkable person even as a child. He was raising himself by the age of 14 while working and attending school. He enjoyed telling tales about his apartment above the diner, signing his own report cards, and purchasing his first car.

Alvin graduated from Raymondville High School in 1957 and went on to serve his country proudly in the United States Marine Corps. Alvin and Nelda married in 1961 and were married for more than 61 years. He enjoyed being outside, fishing and hunting with his son, and gardening. He also enjoyed all types of sports.

Many people knew and loved Alvin from his time at Town & Country #1, where he worked and later owned for over 40 years. Alvin was overjoyed to have sold the winning Lotto ticket twice as Town & Country became the "Lucky Store" and the number one Lottery seller in Texas. After retiring from T & C, he pursued a new interest in antiques and collectables and founded Potter's Consignment, which is still run by his son Tim.

Alvin was a devoted father, grandfather, and great grandfather. He is survived by his wife Nelda Potter, daughter Jody, and son Tim and his wife Fany. Grandchildren Cameron and wife Sarah, Samantha, Travis, Bailey, Ty, Tripp, Sandra and Andy. Great grandchildren Caleb and Kennedy. Sister Aunt Tootsie and brother Billy. Nieces Sandy, Roxie and nephew Alan. He is preceded in death by father George and mother Zelma.

Inurnment will be Monday, October 24th at 10:00 AM at the Rio Grande Valley Veterans Cemetery in Mission, TX.
