“ Growing up, attending a Catholic school , and being raised by a single father...I was sometimes excluded from certain things...but Mrs. Williams always included me and I was always welcome in her home. I'll always remember the fun Darlene and I had playing the guitar under her direction at the OLS masses. I loved her sense of humor. Love to all of her family. She will be sorely missed.

Sis, I miss you so very much, but I know you are in a better place. I thank you for being my big sister and taking care of me. And all the fun time we had growing up. I will always love you forever. You are now my guardian angel.
