

Bertha Mae Lee Krska

April 20, 2021

On Tuesday, April 20, 2021, Bertha Mae Lee Krska passed away peacefully at 97 years of age. She was born to Jack Lee and Margaret Fasmore in Beaumont, TX, on July 22, 1923. Bertha, also known as Granny K. or Granny in the Kitchen, was a mild-mannered soul that loved the Dallas Cowboys, enjoyed collecting S&H Green Stamps back in the day, read Playboy, loved to dance, and was also known to enjoy a margarita on occasion. Bertha worked most of her life in the shoe department at JC Penny's in Edinburg and, after retirement, became "Granny in the Kitchen" at the ABC Kiddle College, where she cooked breakfast and lunch for hundreds of kids over the years. One of Granny K's favorite sayings was, "Don't get old honey!!" She was loved by all and will be truly missed.

Bertha is preceded in death by her husband of 61 years, Francis James Krska, son Lew Krska, daughter Francine "Liz" Dickey, and son Eddie Krska. She is survived by two sons Ted Krska and Dean Krska, 15 grandchildren, more than 28 great-grandchildren, and numerous great-great-grandchildren.

“ Dear Granny, thank you for raising me up at the tender age of 12 and 13...I remember running to JcPenny's after school tennis practice to wait for us to get back home...always something to eat. Love you and will miss you...you're with the Good Lord now singing his praises and young and worry free. That's how I want to think of your life now. God Bless you and rest in peace. Love always, Davy.
