

Beverly Strohmeyer

July 8, 2025

Beverly Strohmeyer, age 81, of McAllen, Texas passed away peacefully on July 8, 2025 at the family's farm house, which was the same house her husband David was born in. She is predeceased by her parents, Clara and Clifford Benwill and her husband David Jerome Strohmeyer. Beverly will be deeply missed by her children, David, Deborah, Natalie, and Valerie, their spouses and their eleven grandchildren.

David and Beverly married on June 6, 1964 and would spend the next 12 years working and moving with the United States Air Force. After David left the Air Force, the family moved to Sierra Vista, AZ where they spent the next 30 years raising their children and working. Beverly was a school teacher for the Sierra Vista Public Schools and worked her entire career at Pueblo Del Sol Elementary as a 4th grade teacher. She was known for her true care for her students and her loving nature her entire life.

After both Beverly and David had been retired for a while, they returned to McAllen, Texas to live on the family farm and run their citrus grove.

Services will be on August 9, 2025 beginning with a mass at Our Lady of Sorrows at 9 am, followed by a graveside service at Roselawn Cemetery on South Main Street, McAllen at 10 am. Arrangements were entrusted to the Kreidler Funeral Home.
