“ We shall all miss Danny. ❤️

This is such a beautifully written obituary, for a very good man, husband, father, and friend. May he rest in peace.

May Karen, and all of their loving children, and grandchildren, feel his guidance and love always!

We shall always remember Danny, as a kind, friendly, generous person, with a big smile, great sense of humor and mischievous nature. He could laugh sometimes to the point of tears, especially when he was the one instigating the prank, or humor, just ask Joe, Ronnie, Jack, David, or any of his close friends that he grew up with.

May I say that we all miss Rosemary, who was a beautiful, sweet, kind, caring lady, who loved her mother, her family and Danny very much.

We are also happy that Karen and Danny found each other, were able to share so much happiness, unified their families, where they experienced a lot of love and joy together. God bless them all.

We love you, Karen. Please accept our prayers and condolences. May peace, and God's strength be with you always.

□ love,

Sarah & Joe Thomas
