

David Jerome Strohmeyer

March 20, 2025

David Jerome Strohmeyer, age 84, of McAllen, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 20, 2025 at the family's farm house, which is the same house that he was born in on October 27, 1940. He was predeceased by his parents, George and Elizabeth Strohmeyer, six sisters and two brothers. He is deeply missed by his wife of 60 years Beverly, and children David, Deborah, Natalie, and Valerie. He also had eleven grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

David was a Mc High graduate class of 1959. He then began college at Pan American graduating in 1964. Twelve years of service in the U.S. Air Force followed. He was a Vietnam Vet. Then for the next 20 years, David worked for the Department of Defense at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. His most satisfying job was his last when he returned to the family farm to grow organic citrus. He was always a farmer at heart working first with his lifelong friend, Charles Gearhart. After Charlie's passing, David's son stepped in. So the farming continues!

There will be a graveside service at Roselawn Cemetery on South Main Street, McAllen at 9 am on Saturday, June 21, 2025. Military honors will be provided by the VFW Post 8788 of McAllen. Arrangements were entrusted to the Kreidler Funeral Home.
