“ I remember when I first met Tia Delia, she was intimidating, but we could also tell she had a kind heart. She would correct us in our wrongdoings, but of course we were kids. We always want to be the smarter ones, but she was there to correct us and leave us in the right path as we got older, we got to know her better. She had a very sweet and kind heart and she will be missed. Godspeed Tia Delia. Abrazos fuertes y besos. Bendiciones siempre.

“ May this blue candle burn brightly for my dear godmother who has now joined the angels in heaven. Your presence will be deeply missed, but your love and light will continue to shine in my heart forever. Rest in peace, dear godmother.
