“ To his family. I was one of his journey man training agents. I taught him his job the best I could. But he taught me how to be a better man, dad, and husband. A true gentleman and friend.

“ Rick,

I can't believe you're gone. Words can't express how I feel right now. Thank you for your friendship since I've been a part of FBC McAllen. I enjoyed being in the Peacemakers Sunday School class with you. You were so supportive of me when I was going through a hard time at my last job. You were so happy when you found out that had gotten by current job. I know you prayed for me during the difficult time because you said you would. We shared working for the Border Patrol together, even though I was a contract Medic/ I am blessed to have gotten to know you and call you a friend. I am honored to call you a brother in Christ and a brother in Law Enforcement. My friend, you are a credit to our faith in Jesus, to your family, and to the United States Border Patrol. Knowing you made me strive to do better. I am going to miss you so much, but I know that I will get to see you again one day. Our Sunday School class and FBC McAllen won't be the same without you, but we will continue to press on. Thanks for the friendship, prayers, love, and support. Rest easy my brother. Until we meet again. Monica, Alan, and Moni, I'm praying for you and so is my family and several friends. I love you all.

My children (your nephews): Rafael Jr, Jacob and Ciara (Niece).

Will miss you tremendously. Big hugs to their dad from them.

Love,
