“ Genuinely taken back by these circumstances. I've never asked nor been compelled to ask for anyone's help often feeling I work too hard to keep it that way. Yet, my family and I came out of the most challenging 6 months of our lives. I for the first time in my life went down a dark place shutting myself off from everyone. Fido like clock work never gave up checking on me and my family via call or text every week or two for months. His texts played a large part in our recovery. We will forever be grateful for his being the blessing during a time we desperately needed it. I will never forget the value of words your texts taught me. We will miss your vibrant energy, curious intelligence, laugh, and most of all heart. RIP brotha.
