

Henry McElmurray

June 9, 2024

Henry McElmurray passed away to be with the Lord on June 9, 2024 at the age of 77. Born to Henry Grady McElmurray, Jr and Gloria Norwood McElmurray in Augusta, Georgia on July 8, 1947, Henry lived a life of service to others. Following four years in the U.S. Army, he attended Pan American University. After graduating, Henry gained employment at the Texas Work Force, where he continued until his retirement.

Henry was the devoted husband of Linda Leeper McElmurray for 33 years, until her death in 2015. A faithful member of First Presbyterian Church of McAllen, Henry served as a Ruling Elder and worked tirelessly as Chair of church fellowship, performing one of his favorite tasks: cooking for others. He will be sorely missed by his church family.

Preceded in death by his parents, his sister Jeannie Morgan, and half-brother Phillip Pennington, Henry is survived by his sister-in-law, Bernadine Pennington.

A Service in Witness to the Resurrection and in celebration of Henry's life will be held at First Presbyterian Church, 104 S. 12th Street, McAllen, on Saturday, September 14 at 11:00 a.m., with a reception following. Interment for both Henry and Linda will take place at Rio Grande Valley State Veterans' Cemetery in Mission, TX, with Kreidler Funeral Home in charge.

In lieu of flowers, gifts may be made to First Presbyterian Church of McAllen in Henry's honor.
