

Isaiah Angelo Torres

January 13, 2024

Isaiah Angelo Torres, age 24, passed away on Saturday morning, January 13, 2024 after being in critical condition all night Friday at DHR Edinburg. He is preceded in death by his father, Juan Manuel Samaniego. He is survived by his parents: Suhai Samaniego and Jorge Gauna; his fiancé: Clarissa Martinez; and siblings: Aharren Torres, Sylvia Samaniego, Olivia Samaniego, Isabella Gauna, Valeria Gauna, and Jocelyn Gauna. Isaiah was a student at UTRGV finishing his studies to honor his late father and fiancé. He was a hard worker always providing no matter what the circumstances were. He'd keep going. He had a character so strong and joyous it was infectious to be around. He was truly such an amazing man whose smile and laughter were contagious and bright. He enjoyed gaming and listening to all kinds of music from heavy metal to Lady Gaga. He also loved motorcycle riding especially when the weather was nice and cool riding into the sunset. Isaiah was a huge animal lover, always caring for them. He will be remembered by always making those he loved smile. He will forever be missed and adored by so many. Visitation will begin at 9:00am followed by a 9:30am rosary on Friday, January 19, 2024 at St. Anne's Catholic Church in Pharr where the funeral mass will begin at 10:00am. Immediately following, the funeral procession in Isaiah's Honor will follow to Santa Fe Cemetery in Mission escorted by the Calaveras MC.

Funeral Services are under the care of Kreidler Funeral Home, Inc. of McAllen.
