“ What a blessing to know you and meet you at church. You have fought a good fight and you have entered into your reward. God bless you ! Love Jan and james KELLER

“ It is significant to me that only two nights before Jim's passing there was a gathering of the brethren that he so enjoyed, and as we worshiped together we sang the song "Behold i tell you a Mystery". That wonderful song declares that death is swallowed up in victory! There is sadness in losing a loved one but think of the testimony that the Holy Ghost was declaring in our midst as only hours away Jim was about to graduate! Death is swallowed up, death is swallowed up, death is swallowed up in victory! For this we shall be ever grateful that for for all those who believe we have this same testimony!

“ Jim was a sweet, kind man that loved his wife Terry. I loved his smile and that twinkle in his eye!

JY

“ Jim Palumbo has been our friend for almost 40 years, I've golfed with him , cut wood for his carvings ,and most of all joined with him in worshipping these Lord, the greatest thing is that his love for the Lord has grown stronger than ever in his last years, Jim will be missed so much, but his memory will always stay with us,our prayers go out to the family , Jim, laurie, and his wife Terry, we love you and may the God of Comfort be with you.

MY

“ Jim was a man of true character, moral virtue and real valor, which is not found in great abundance today. But more than any other quality, he was a man of God. What made him so was his unrelenting love and passion for Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and Lord of his life. He served the Lord with ALL of his heart, soul and mind. He would tell everyone about Jesus in his heart, because he wanted everyone to have what he had....the true joy, the real peace and the great Presence of God - eternally! Come to know HIM today like Jim did.... your life will never be the same.
