“ Jeanette loved everyone she met and she was a loyal friend to all . She cared for all the children that were in her classes at school and went beyond her job to make sure they felt special. Her humor would always give you a good laugh. Jack and Jeanette were the perfect example of Christian love and faithfulness. Together they made a fun and interesting couple . They loved each one of their family and their grandchildren were blessed by their love and kindness. Heaven is brighter now with Jack and Jeanette "together forever" We love you both. Liz and Merlyn
