“ Johnny, Thank you for sharing your home with us. After your visit with us in Austin, & Grandparents in Taylor, we'd share the ride back with you to the valley. We would spend a week each summer of our youth with you, Aunt Marie & Uncle Edlee. Picking oranges, swimming, once a visit to Harlingen zoo, a tour through the International Museum on Bicentennial, and your Mom's Chicken King Ranch luncheon. You taught us kindness and inclusion of each other. I'm filled with hope and joy for you. Love from your cousin Anna

“ What a great picture! That sweet smile is exactly how I remember Johnny. He was well loved by a select few - such a gift for him. Cousin Ellen
