“ Jose Picho De La Garza was a positive role model. He was a loving husband, loving father, and cared about his brothers and sisters. He loved his mom and dad and enjoyed great times and made people feel good with his love for life through his jokes. Joel II, Erica, and myself will sorely miss him. The last time I spoke to him he was very honest and very deeply centered and shared lifetime experiences. His words were literally were very inspiring. He will truly be missed. Love you brother.

My sincere condolences to the De La Garza family - Arminda, Hector, Joel, Imelda - and the rest of the extended family on Picho's passing. I remember Picho as being a good guy who always had a smile on his face and a joke to tell which in turn made me feel happy. I know that his passing has left a large void in your lives, but he left many good and funny memories that you can look back on and he won't seem to be too far away. Peace be with all of you.
