“ We met Karen and Mike on a wonderful trip to Australia and New Zealand about 4 years ago. We also had the chance to catch up with them two times in Texas with two other great couples we met on that trip. They were quite the pair! She was a sweet lady and we got a kick out of the two of them! Our thoughts are with Mike and the rest of the family. Rest in peace sweet Karen.

“Karen was a wonderful sister. She met the challenges of growing up with three brothers with grace and understanding. Karen loved us all in spite of our shortcomings. I will always be grateful for the love she showed while attending the services for my wife Trudy, two years ago. No matter how involved her personal life might be, when learning of a friend's loss, Karen would drop everything to be at their side, willing to assist however possible. She had a big heart and a wonderful smile.

I will always appreciate the hours I was with her, her husband and son, the day before her passing. The highlight of that afternoon was watching Karen devour the ice cream they had sneaked into the hospital for her. She savored every mouth full with great joy. I think she commented, "finally some real food".

*"Thank you for being my sister. I wish I had been a better brother.
Love you, Terry"*
