“ Ken was a wonderful man and touched the lives of many in a positive way. He was a very giving and caring person. Ken always thought of others and helped them see the best possible version of themselves. Ken helped me realize I could accomplish anything I put my mind to do.

He and Virginia were the poster children for a loving and successful marriage. They were two peas in a pods and supported each other and always had fun. Their Halloween costumes were always eagerly anticipated by those who knew them.

Ken was a role model for living a Christian life. May the Lord surround Ken with his loving eternal embrace.
