

Luis Miguel Noriega

April 22, 1986 - August 26, 2016

Luis Miguel Noriega was born April 22, 1986 in Arlington, Texas, and he passed away August 26, 2016 in McAllen, Texas. He moved to Pharr with his mother in 2002 and had lived there ever since.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Ana Maria Elizondo Villarreal and Alberto G. Villarreal and Manuel and Bertha Noriega. He is survived by his mother, Hilda Noriega of Pharr, Texas; sister, Cristina Noriega of Arlington, Texas; and father, Arturo Noriega.

Luis was a special boy who charmed everyone who met him. He loved lotions and playing in his swimming pool when he was able. Luis had many nurses who cared for him as he got older, and he became fast friends with anyone who met him. Luis did not speak many words, but he always conveyed his feelings. He used his trademark "chingashit" whenever he was mad or frustrated.

He loved being around people and making them laugh with his funny and charming style. He especially loved being in the company of girls and blowing them kisses.

Luis's bright light will always shine. He's in a better place, and he is at peace. Luis can now walk, run, eat and do everything and anything his constricted body would not allow.
