“ Mrs. Carol Rodriguez was my daughter's Angela Garza's favorite elementary teacher, 5th grade, at Donna Wernecke Elem. That's how we knew Marc and then him and Angela were in XC at SNJH. So many beautiful memories of those years, but our most memorable one was when they rescued us in their canoes, without knowing it was us, during the flood of June 18, 2020. Marc's beautiful smile will forever be engraved in our hearts. Angela and I are heartbroken for Mrs. Rodriguez and her family. Our deepest and most sincere condolences go out to the entire Rodriguez Davis family. Marc we hope you are doing your flips and keeping that gorgeous smile of yours up in heaven. 🙏❤️

“ I had the pleasure of knowing and meeting Marco, Carol, Cayla, and Marky when they returned to the RGV from Casper, Wyoming. I couldn't have met a more humble, genuine, welcoming, generous, heartwarming spiritual, loving family in my life. The thing with Marco and Carol it didn't matter who you were, if you met them, they treated you like family and shared whatever they had. It wasn't uncommon for them to invite you to a backyard barbeque and there were 30-100 and maybe more friends and family members at their residence. Their immediate family members treated you like family..I remember meeting Marc, Carol, and Cayla the first time. We were on a lunch break, and one of the few times we could convince Marco to go have lunch with us, he always thought about his family, and invited them. After meeting them all, I knew they were the far and few people you really cling, hold onto in life and remain friends...Those memories will always remain with me when I think of them. I will always feel blessed, and grateful to having them in my life. That is why it pains me, and tears run down my face as I type this message in memory of Marky and the entire Rodriguez family. My most sincere and deepest condolences go out to them during this difficult time, and they will be always be in my thoughts and prayers..

“ Mr. and Mrs. Rodriguez & family, Marc was one of the few special friendships I've had over the last 5 years, and I am so appreciative to have met him and had this close friendship. He showed me to adventures, and always knew how to put a smile on my face. We bonded over music, memes, outdoor activities & school work (which we didn't like). He touched so many lives with his beautiful soul, and that takes a special type of person. I will carry this friendship with me forever and am sending my condolences and love. ❤️

“ I had the privilege of being Marc's teacher in Jr. High. He always had a smile and was willing to engage in conversation about current events. I will never forget at the end of his Senior year as he walked through our campus with all graduates that he stepped out of line to shake my hand. It was in that moment that I realized I had a positive impact on his life. May God bless the family and bring peace and comfort.
