“ I met Rosie when my husband "Fred" became a member of Alhambra El Cid Caravan, She had great charm and her kindness and sweetness were a great part of her personality. I always enjoyed visiting with her because her conversation was always of interest to me. I missed seeing her when Mike and her moved to Corpus Christi. I can see why she was successful in banking with her smile, eyes of someone you could trust, and her Christian attitude.

I love you Rosie and know you are in Heaven with our Lord Jesus Christ!

“ My grandmother was a very kind women who was always happy, but you don't want to get on her bad side at church so she taught me respect in that aspect. Respect the church, respect your neighbors, and respect your elders. That's just one of many things she has taught me while I was growing up. She also taught me that no matter what there is nothing like a grandmother's love it's special. She always made me feel so welcomed when I was there. She knew how to cook there's no ifs ands or buts about that she knew her way around the kitchen and it showed. But most of all I will remember that she would sing me a song every night before I went to bed and I absolutely loved that about her she never missed a beat. I will always remember you grandma and every special moment that we had together but now your home with grandpa and that makes me happy.

With love your grandson Tony
