

Mark Randall Myatt

May 13, 2018

Mark Randall Myatt died Sunday May 13, 2018. He was born March 12, 1967 in Edinburg, TX. He was preceded in death by his loving grandmother, Irise Barlow (2016). He was the light of her life and he loved her like no other.

Mark began his career in the produce industry in 1992. Prior to working in produce, he was selling vacuum cleaners in Tennessee. His stepfather, Marvin Davis, figured that if he could sell a vacuum cleaner he could sell anything. He offered him a job selling onions and over the years Mark became known as one of the leading salesmen in the onion and avocado business. Mark was known for his quick wit and always having a good time. He enjoyed fishing, bowling and loved the Dallas Cowboys.

Mark is survived by his three children, Mark (Deuce) Myatt, Jr. and Erik Myatt of San Antonio and Landen Myatt of Medina. His mother Deitrah Davis and husband Marvin of McAllen. His father Robert Randall Garfield and wife Kathy of New Roads, LA. His uncle, Russell L. Barlow and wife, Lynn. His three aunts, Adrian Barlow and Bettye Barlow of McAllen and Jan Wiley of McMinnville, TN.

A celebration of life will be held Friday, May 18, 2018, 2:00 PM at Kreidler Funeral Home.

“ Mark, not only was he a step father to me, but he was a father to me. He loved me like his own. His love for me showed. I wish he knew how much I loved him, and how much he meant to me. I will never forget on New Year's Eve when the clock hit 12:01 am he picked me up and swung me around the room and told me he loved me. I felt like I was the daughter he never had. He gave me a home when I saw my mom, a dog named Roxie who I would do anything to have that dog in my arms again. He gave me my brother who I will always love. Most importantly he gave me his fatherly love. I will miss him dearly, and remember the good memories. My heart dies knowing that he is gone. But I can still feel his presence. I will always remember and love him. I will always pray that he would know that. Love you Mark.
