Nicolas Rangel died peacefully in his sleep on Friday morning, February 17, 2017. He was 90. Nicolas was born in San Fernando, Tamaulipas, Mexico. He was a resident of McAllen since the 1950's. During the 1960's, he started a eponymous construction company, building some of the most beautiful homes in McAllen and the surrounding areas. His construction company brought him great joy until his retirement in the early 2000's. His career was marked by his attention to detail and quality craftsmanship. Personally, Nicolas will be remembered for his authenticity and his caring nature.

Nicolas is survived by his four children – Rosamaria, Nicolas (Lorene), Enrique (Marlo) and Lupita. He is also survived by his six grandchildren – Adam, Sofia, Isaac, Ilan, Nadia, and Jacob. Nicolas was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 30 years, Rosalinda Mery Rangel.
