Devoted wife, loving mother, and "Biddy," Patricia (Patty) Ogden Dickerson passed away on October 14, 2017 at the age of 92 in McAllen, Texas. Griffin; two sisters, Mary Catherine Zimmerman and Doris Bush; and one granddaughter, Page Hagemann.

Patty grew up in San Benito where she began to dance and perform as soon as she could walk, with her favorite cousins, Jimmy and Gerry Chatelle. She graduated from San Benito High School. In 1948, she married Frank, and they settled in Raymondville where she opened the Patty Dickerson School of Dance, sharing her love of dance for more than 20 years. Not only were her students asked to perform throughout the Valley, they were often guest performers on the local Ty Cobb television show. Her passions were dancing and painting. She had many interests but especially enjoyed playing Bridge and Mahjong, and she was an active member in Beta Sigma Phi, P.E.O., Pocos Locos Readers Theater, St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Raymondville, and Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in McAllen.

The Family would like to acknowledge and thank Marta Cervantes for 44 years of dedication to Frank and Patty. Thanks also to the staff from Amara Hospice, as well as Presidente Home Health, especially Martha, Susanna, Maria, and Edith, for their loving care for Patty.
