June 8, 2024

Peggy Ackland (Crawford), 81, passed away on June 8, 2024, at her home in Mission, Texas.

Peggy was born Sept. 13, 1942 to Omer and Faye Crawford. She was born and raised near Keota, Iowa on the family farm. In 1960, Peggy graduated Keota High School and on August 5, 1961, she married Richard Ackland. In 1972, They started Lou-Rich-Hayward in a partnership with friends, Louie and Sally Larson. Peggy assisted the company with numerous tasks including driving a flat bed truck for Lou-Rich. The company grew successful in a large part because of Peggy's influence and hard work. They resided in Albert Lee, while wintering in Mission, TX for numerous years before moving full time to Mission in 2020.

She enjoyed reading, cooking and baking, spending time with family, traveling, especially to Scotland/Ireland, and watching her granddaughter play softball. Prior to arthritis in her fingers, Peggy enjoyed knitting, quilting and making cards. Her specialty was peanut brittle that she made and gave away at Christmas time.

Peggy was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, a sister and her daughter, Debbie. She is survived by her husband, Richard; daughters, Tammy Eggum (Randy), Jodi Eickhoff (Todd); grandchildren, Cody, Casey, Shelby, Stephanie, Derek, Conner and Emma; and five great grandchildren.

“ So sorry to hear of the Peggy's passing. She and Rich was a sweet couple. Played golf with them at Seven Oaks. They would stay later than most winter Texan's and I would go up and have lunch with them.
