“ Rodney was one of a kind. A real individual who followed his own fun-loving drumbeat & was liked by all. We know that he is greatly missed by his friends & loving family, & that their days will be enriched by the many happy memories of their good times with Rodney. an old friend, Leroy Fail

“ Rodney was my friend. The world became smaller with his passing. I have scores of memories of adventures with him when we young. All are good. He was kind, and he thoughtful, and he was interesting. He was always interesting. My condolences to everyone. He left too soon.

WE

“ It seemed we were inseparable, a group of guys in high school who played football in the mud, rode bikes during hurricane Carla, "studied physics" at his house as we were actually playing pitch, but made it sound believable to his Dad, running the entire length of the Gateway Mall, an event in which he is forever World Record Holder. I remember him as a kind soul, and a great friend. Condolences to all. - Win Emmons
