

Dr. Rosario Parra

August 13, 1961 - January 15, 2026

Dr. Rosario Parra, 64, passed away peacefully in McAllen, Texas after a courageous battle with her disease.

Born in Guamuchil, Sinaloa, MX, she grew up in Monterrey where she studied medicine. She excelled in all aspects of her field in Cardiovascular Anesthesiology with two fellowships in the USA and Great Britain. One of the founders of the anesthesiology service at the Heart Hospital in McAllen, Texas, she left a legacy of knowledge, friendship, and love. She also worked at Rio Grande Hospital and Cornerstone Hospital for 10 years. Rosario helped so many patients in an incredible compassionate manner.

She leaves behind Dr. Raul Marquez, her husband for 20 years and her loving son Alex Swenson, who will miss her very much. She was a super-mom and our rock in the family. She was the best cook and has incredible work ethic. Her main interests and hobbies were traveling and painting. She truly learned from everyone. She will be forever missed and always loved.

Visitation and funeral service will be held at Kreidler Funeral Home on Saturday, Jan. 24, 2026, from 1pm-5pm. In lieu of flowers, kindly consider donating to: Comfort House Hospice, 617 Dallas Ave., McAllen, TX 78501

“ She was a very creative and kind person with a great appreciation for beauty and life. As an architect it was my great pleasure to work with her on more than one project. So many who knew her will miss her kindness and smiles. My condolences to Raul and Alex.
