

Sandra Davis Womack

April 21, 2022

Sandra Davis Womack, 70, was born June 1, 1951, in Leavenworth, Kansas to Curtis Clinton Davis and Beverly June Davis. She was a devoted wife, sister, grandmother, aunt, boss, mentor, helper and Christian. Passionately loved by her family and friends, Sandra's passing leaves a huge hole in many lives, and she will be missed and remembered forever. She taught art and swimming, and she and her husband started their own real estate company in 1985. Sandy loved "jeeping" and Jesus. She lost her battle with cancer on April 21, 2022, and is survived by her husband of 43 years, Rodney C. Womack, son Rodney (Penny), grandchildren Jordan (Kelsey) and Josh, sister Candace (David), brother Jerry (Alva), special friend Donelda, nephews Matthew, Justin, Jay, Doug and Ryan plus many beloved pets and personal friends.

There will be a celebration of life memorial at Church of the King, 7401 N Ware Rd., McAllen, TX Saturday, May 14th at 10 a.m.
