Trinidad Loredo, 94, went to be with our Lord, Tuesday November 29, 2016 in Edinburg surrounded by her family. Trinidad was a faithful member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. She was a loving, caring person, a true fighter and so full of life. She dedicated her life to God and her loved ones and shared her love by baking cookies, banana bread, and pies. She had a personality that glittered and sparkled, and spread it upon everyone she came in contact with. She had an alluring style, jewelry for every outfit and holiday and nails to match.
