“ Hi,

I am Carson Gardner, great grandson of Earl Carson, brother of Ellsworth "Ell" Carson, Mary's husband.. I remember my grandmother, Jennie Carson, when I was a child talking about trading letters with "Laura of McAllen Texas." I guess that would have been Fritzi's mom? I am sorry that I never got to meet Virginia "Fritzi" as an adult. May Gichi Manidoo, the good Lord, bless your family in your grief and grant you peace. Gail and I live on the White Earth Ojibwe Reservation, and are retirement age. I just ran into Donnie Headbird for the first time last spring--Shaynowishkung's great great grandson and one of your relatives. my eldest living Carson cousin, Newell Carson of Kalispell, Montana, would love to get in touch with the Shaynowishkung clan and trade stories, should you ever wish to do that. He has some very good Bemidji stories, and some Shaynowishkung mementos given by Shaynowishkung to our grandfather, Joseph Evan Carson and passed on to Newell's father Ralph Carson. Well, God bless you through healing for your grief.
